

January 6 2008

Genesis 1-3

Beginnings

Beginnings, do we look at the HOW or the WHO?

1. The introduction of God

God reveals to us; His p _____, His c _____, and His “deepest desires” are to r _____ and f _____ with the people He created.

God reveals to us the o _____ of creation. Remember it is the w _____, and His h _____ is to speak and it is realty.

2. The introduction of man

A _____ was made in the image of God.

Adam is the 1st male, the 1st husband, and the 1st father.

Adam was given a job to do and the responsibility to make choices.

Adam’s weaknesses are he a _____ responsibility, b _____ others, he would h _____ rather than confront, and to make e _____ rather than admitting the truth.

E _____ was made in the image of God.

Eve is the 1st female, the 1st wife, and the 1st mother.

Eve was given a job to do and the responsibility to make choices.

Eve’s weaknesses are she allowed her c _____ to be undermined, Eve acted I _____ with out talking to God or her mate, and when confronted b _____ others.

3. The introduction of Satan

Satan’s plan against us is D _____ - we would question God’s word and His goodness, D _____ - we would look at the problems rather than God, D _____ – we see the wrong things as attractive, D _____ – we feel like a failure so that we do not try.

Conclusions:

God came to earth in person.

We can know in a very personal way this God who created us.

His “deepest desire” is to relate and to fellowship with the people He created.