

June 10 2007
The Good Guy & the Bad Guy
John 10:1-18

Who are our characters in this text?

- 1. The _____*
- 2. The _____*
- 3. The _____*
- 4. The _____*

1. The Good Shepherd what do we know about him? (10:1-6)

- V#2 He uses the front _____ .*
- V#3 He _____ to His sheep.*
- He calls them by _____ .*
- He is a _____ .*
- V#7 He is the only _____ .*
- Whoever enters through _____ will be saved.*
- He gives _____ .*
- V#10 He gives life _____ .*
- V#11 He is the _____ good shepherd.*
- He gives His _____ .*
- He _____ it down. V#18*
- V#14 He knows His sheep, and they know _____ .*
- He knows His Father, and He knows _____ .*
- V#16 He has _____ sheep.*

2. The Bad Guy what do we know about him? (10:1-17)

- V#1 He is a _____ and a _____ .*
- V#10 He steals _____ .*
- V#10 He kills _____ .*

3. The Watchman what do we know about him? (10:3)

- V#3 He is the gate _____ .*

4. The sheep what do we know about them?

- The sheep are _____ for, _____ and well _____ .*
- The sheep are _____, they listen to there master.*
- Some sheep are _____ by the good guy.*
- The sheep have _____ .*
- They _____ because they know the master, and His voice.*
- They _____ away from the Bad Guy.*
- The sheep who _____ to the Good shepherds calling are saved.*
- They _____ a full and abundant life.*

Conclusions

There is a Good Guy, His name is Jesus. He is the only way to be saved.

There is a Bad Guy, his name is Satan. He wants to, and will kill you.

We are like sheep. We can live an abundant life, if we will respond to the Masters call and follow Him.