

October 18 2015
How we are to be and behave.
Romans 12:1-21

I. Our personal responsibility is to become living sacrifices.

- A. Our personal responsibility is to _____ or body to God as living sacrifices.
- B. Our personal responsibility is to not conform to the _____ of this world.
- C. Our personal responsibility is to be _____ by the renewing of your mind.
- D. Our personal responsibility is to _____ and _____ what God's will is for our life.

II. Understand Your body's function and The Body's function.

- A. The head; don't _____ of yourself more highly than you should.
- B. Each of us has _____ body with many parts.
- C. In Christ we are all _____ body.
- D. The parts of Christ's body are:
 - 1. The gift of _____.
 - 2. The gift to _____.
 - 3. The gift of _____.
 - 4. The gift of _____.
 - 5. The gift of _____.
 - 6. The gift of showing _____.
 - 7. The gift of being a _____.

III. Our personal responsibility is to Love.

- A. Love must be _____.
 - 1. _____ what is evil _____ on to what is good.
 - 2. Honor _____ more than yourselves.
 - 3. When you _____, be joyful.
 - 4. When you _____, be patient.
 - 5. When you _____, be faithful.
 - 6. Practice _____.
- B. It is our personal responsibility to _____ a right attitude.
 - 1. _____ those who persecute and hurt you.
 - 2. _____ with those who rejoice; _____ with those who mourn.
 - 3. Do not be _____.
 - 4. Do not think that you are _____ than others.
 - 5. Do not be _____.
- C. God _____ pay them back, let Him.
 - 1. Do not pay _____ evil with evil.
 - 2. As far as it depends on _____, live at peace with everyone.
 - 3. Do not try to get _____.
 - 4. Do just the opposite _____ to them.
- D. Do not _____ evil overcome you.